

IMAX Movie Debut

Frank Bauer, KA3HDO
ARISS Chairman

ARISS Meeting at CSA
6 April 2002

IMAX Movie Information

- The newest IMAX movie, “Space Station” is set to debut to the general public on April 19
- First IMAX 3D movie
- ARISS contact will be part of movie—about 1 minute of 45 minute film
- ARISS-US team is working with IMAX, Lockheed Martin, and Federal City Communications (IMAX PR firm) to support press briefing and VIP debut at Air and Space Museum

Current Plans at National Air and Space Museum

- Support Press Briefing and Press Viewing of Movie on April 16
- Support VIP viewing of movie on April 17
- Setting up display and staffing booth with the following:
  - 10 foot display describing ARISS program
  - ARISS Equipment Setup (Phase 1 and Antenna System)
  - Nova tracking program with ISS orbit
  - Amateur radio satellite on display (PCSat spare)
  - Handouts from ARRL and AMSAT
  - Quogue, NY school contact on April 16
- Will have multiple copies of 10 foot display materials for other IMAX venues around the USA